Processed and Stored Data

- Server-Authentication: These tokens are stored indefinitely and are randomly generated. These tokens have timestamps attached to them (date and time of creation) but are not stored with other information about the request (IP, or other information)
- Client Settings: Any provided settings are stored indefinitely in relation to your Server-Authentication (as described in the first bullet under "Processed Data").
- Online Players: The Server-Authentication stores a list of the Player Names, Connection state and Player UUID's for everyone online on a Minecraft server that has ParkPlusMC installed. This data will only be available for as long as the Minecraft server is connected to ParkPlusMC
- Players: Some player related Data gets Stored indefinitely in parts of the ParkPlusMC service. This data is accessible at any time using an Account Token. This Data does not include anything request related(IP, or other)
- Data: We use information we collect in various ways, including to:
 - Improve ParkPlusMC and any of it's components
 - Develop new products, services, features and functionality
 - Find and handle breach of the Terms of Service
